

Review

What was the healthy city (of pigs) like?

What is the fevered city like?

How does the form of Callipolis attempt to moderate the fevered city?

Why are Guardians (and Auxiliaries) necessary?

Challenges

Should male and female Guardians be treated equally?

In what ways are men and women equal to Plato and in what ways are they different?

How does Callipolis handle reproduction?

What is the point of this elaborate procedure?

Is Callipolis a realistic model for a city?

The Divided Line

Make a drawing of the Divided Line.
Label its parts.

Make a chart explaining the Divided Line.

The Cave

Explain the Analogy of the Cave

What about the man who leaves the cave
and returns to tell his fellow prisoners about it?
Does that resemble Socrates in any way?

The Philosopher King/Queen

Describe the Philosopher King or Queen.

How does a real philosopher differ from a sophist?

Pl. Rep. 498d

“Don’t try and start a quarrel between Thrasymachus and me,”
I said,
“just when we’ve become friends—
not that we were enemies before.”

What does Socrates mean by that?